SUMMER

A change of pace in cool green surroundings inviting you to indulge in a variety of vacation adventures.

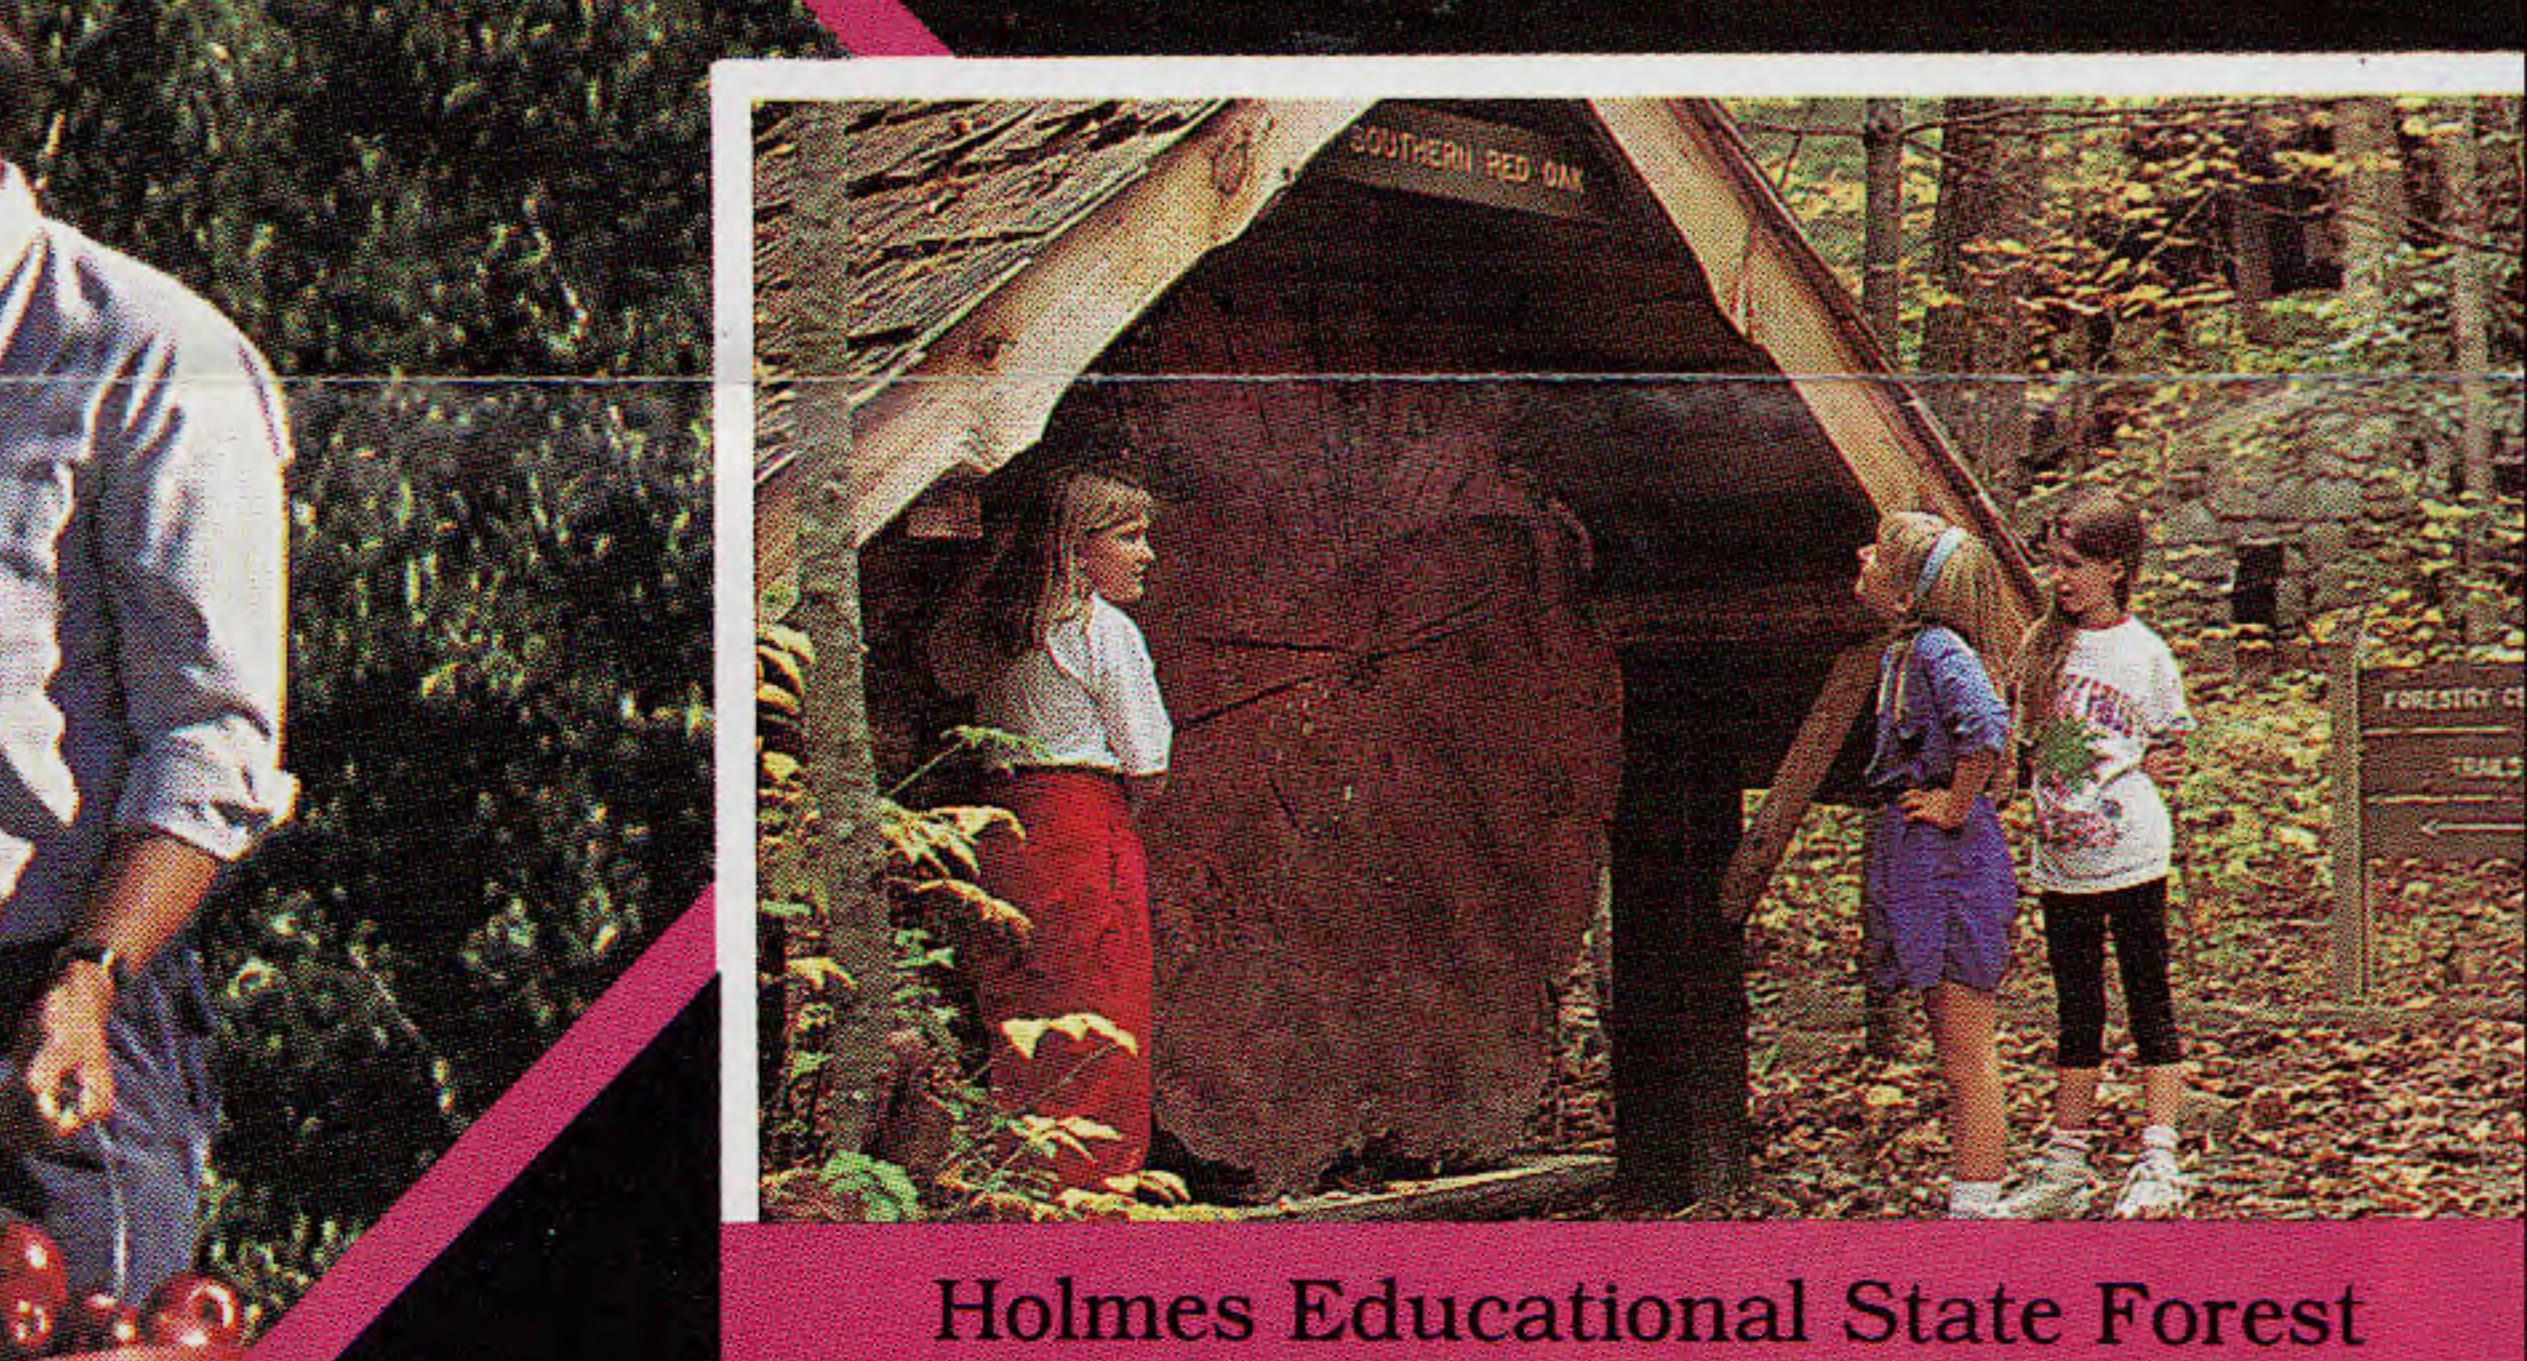

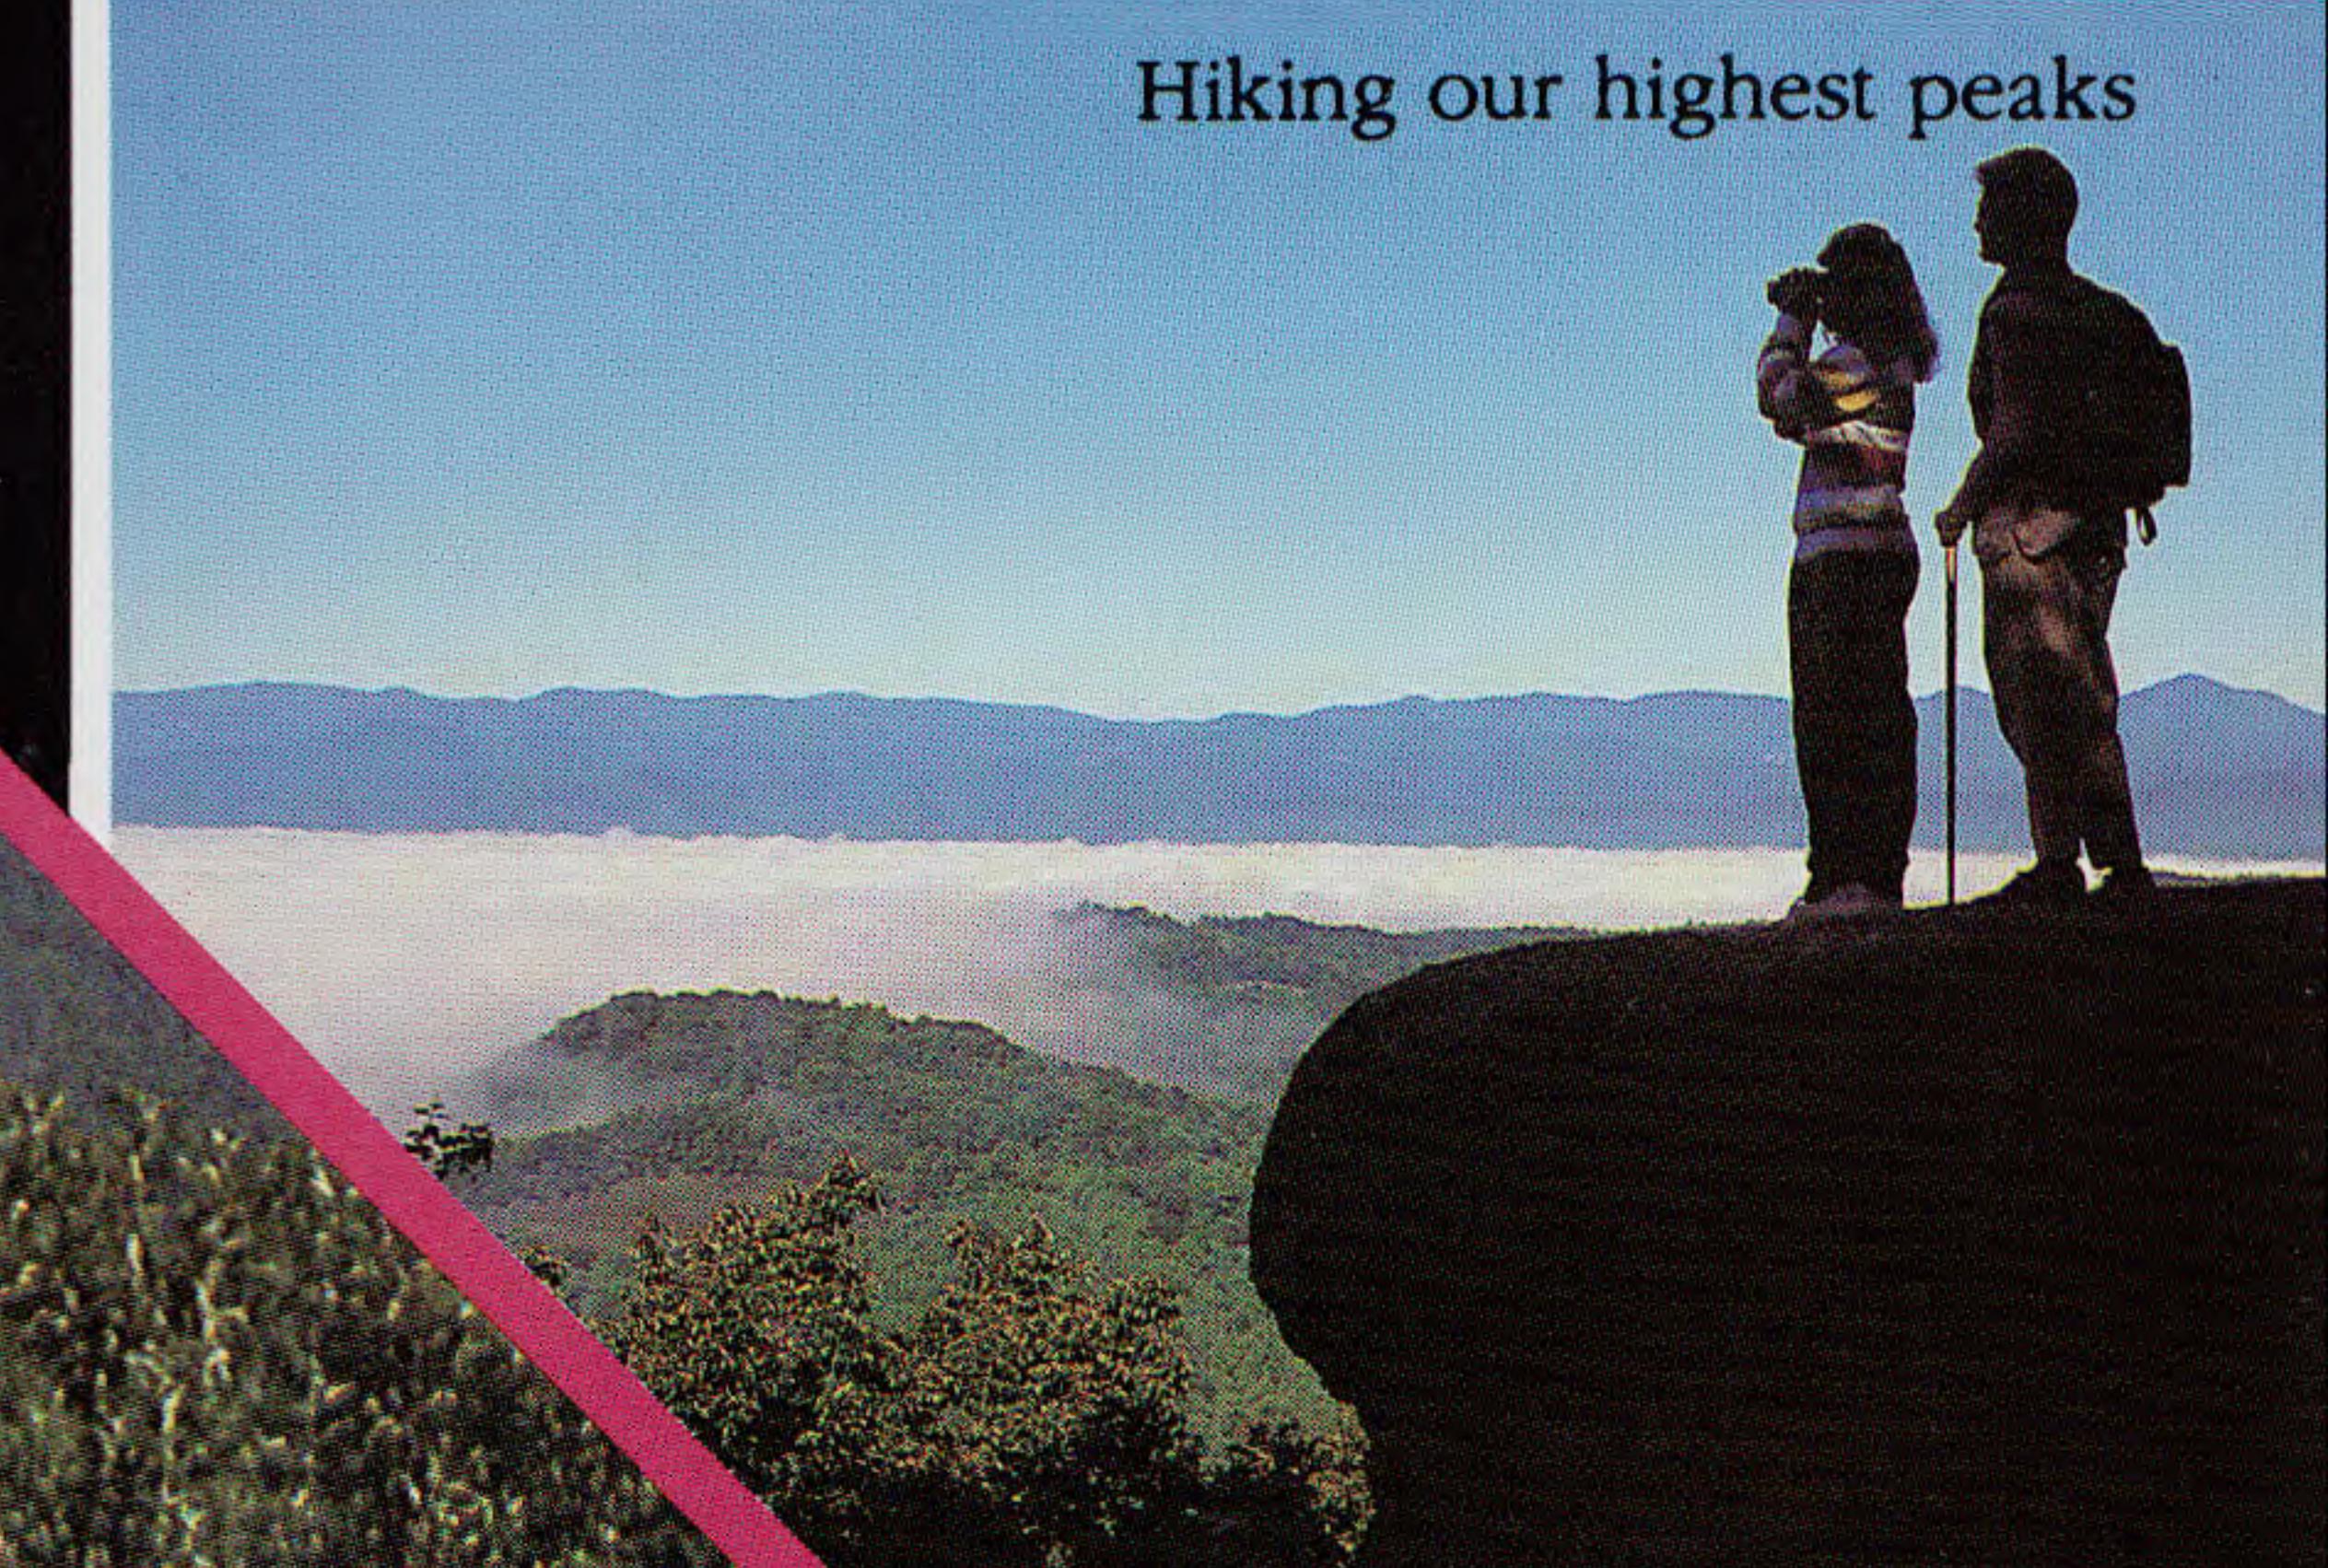

We invite you to explore our apple orchards and fruit stands, our charming rural communities, varied outdoor recreation and panoramic views.

AUTUMN

Days of crisp mornings giving way to warm sunny afternoons and dazzling foliage, orange pumpkins, Indian corn, apple harvest and Thanksgiving feasts portraying the glories of Fall!

WINTER

Mountain adventures continue as our gentle climate ushers in the holiday celebrations, nearby skiing, gentle blankets of snow, and friendly gatherings as warm as a cup of hot cider...

SPRING

From the dogwood and rhododendron to azaleas and wildflowers, Springtime bursts throughout the mountains in a seemingly endless display of color and the great outdoors come to life again...

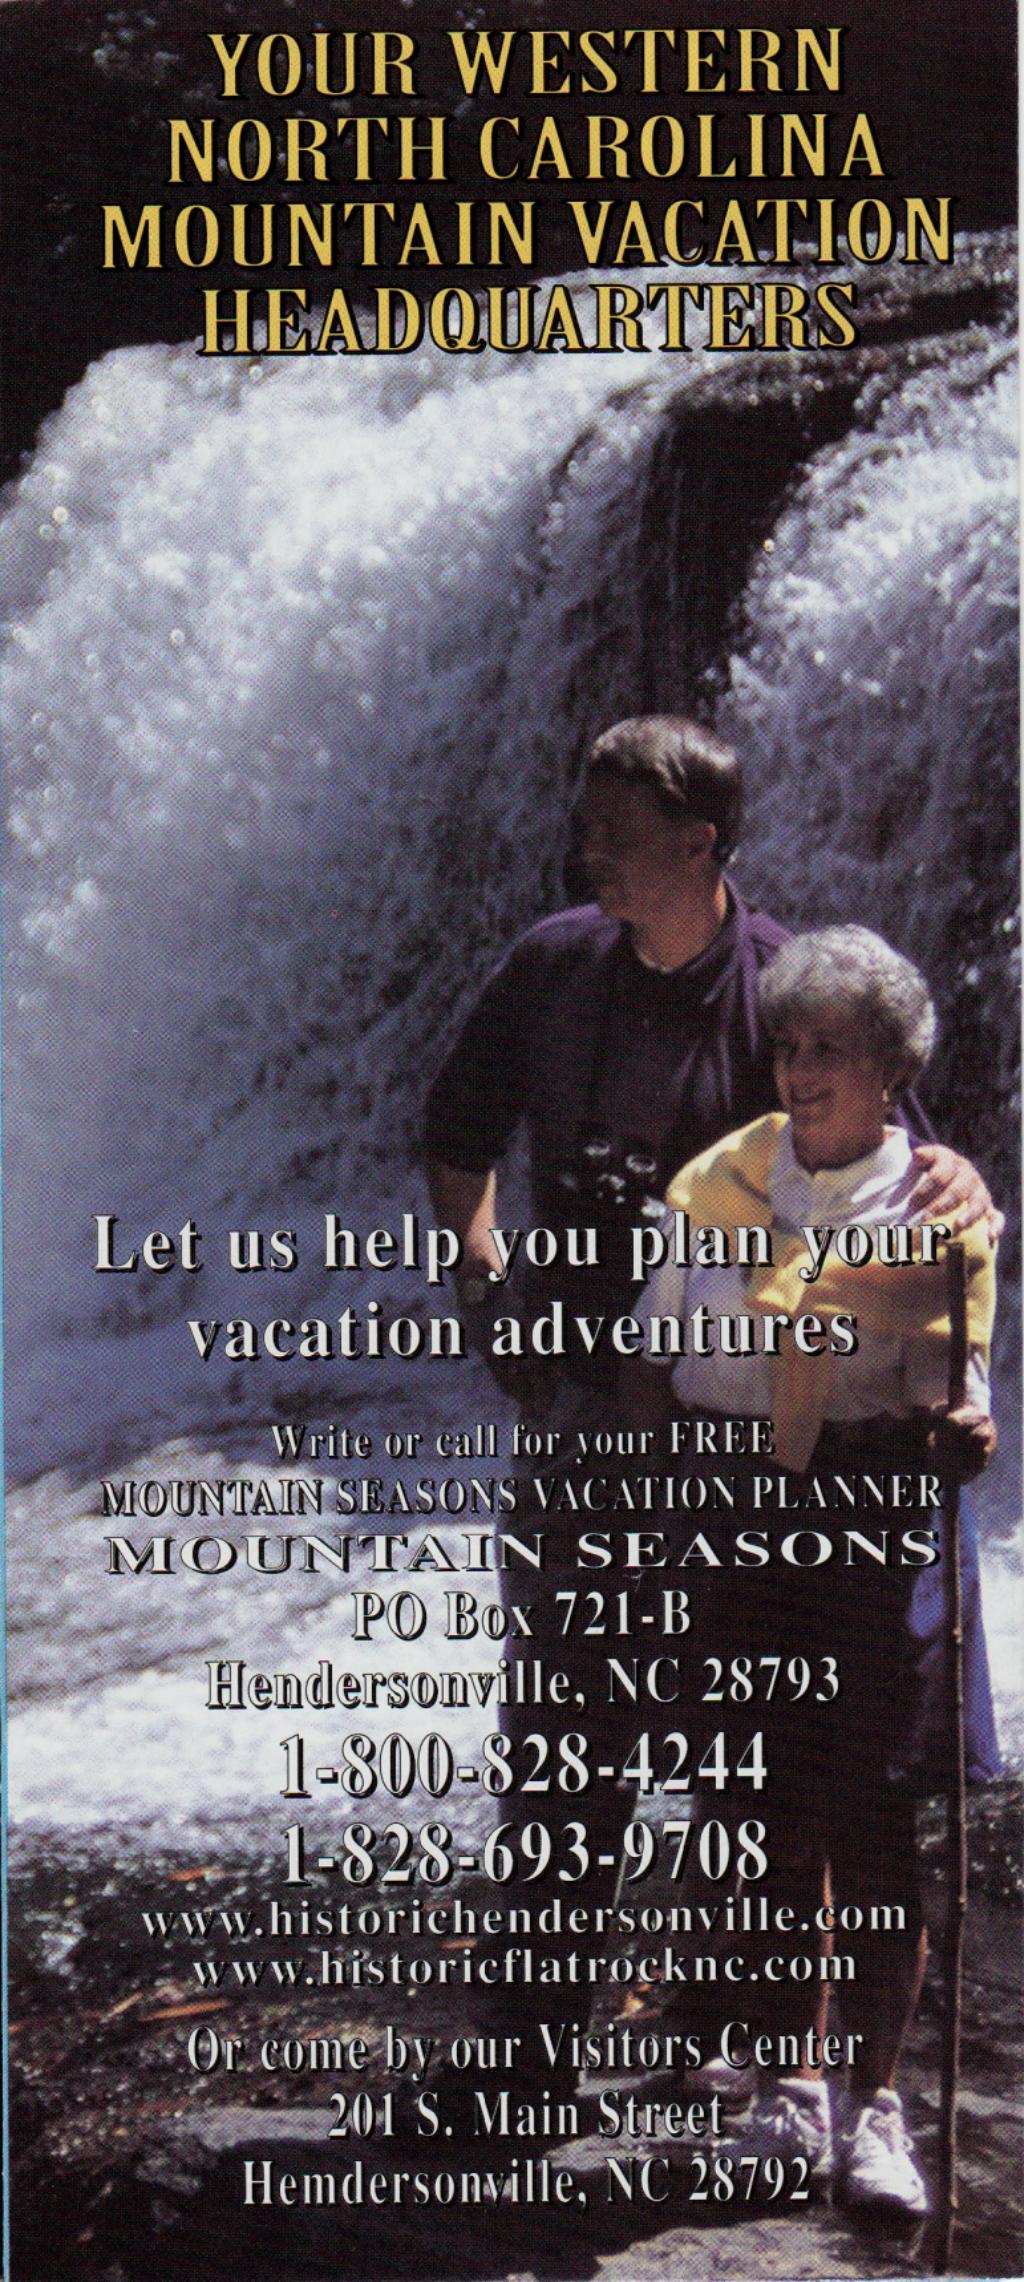

Some say it's the friendship, and the slower pace. Others say it's the mild climate and mountain vistas. Maybe it's the historic inns and summer homes, or Flat Rock Playhouse the State Theatre of North Carolina and the Carl Sandburg Home, a National Historic Site. Possibly it's the ambiance of a small historic town like Hendersonville or the first stage coach stop, the old Farmers Hotel, now the Historic Woodfield Inn.

Whatever it is that draws our visitors back to the area year after year, you will find it's because the people are warm and friendly, the climate is ideal, the community beautiful and the mountains serene.
